TRIAL OF HAYWOOD PROCEEDS AT BOISE

CAMERAS ARE TRAINED ON HIM

Upwards of Forty Newspaper Men From Every Part of the United States Are In Boise to Report Proceedings in Celebrated Case.

Boise, Idaho, May 15.—With twelve jurymen in the box, four of whom have been passed for cause by both the prosecution and the defense, and 74 talesmen yet to be called, the trial of William D. Haywood, charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, opened Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, the third day of the trial, with every prospect of the completed jury before the end of the week.

It is admitted, however, that while the progress towards the selection of jurymen is much greater than was anticipated, it is difficult to foretell what the outcome may be of the examination of the talesmen summoned by the sheriff under the order for a special venire. The fact that 35 of this number presented excuses and that of these 24 were excused, shows an extreme reluctance to serve on the jury and also the leniency of the court.

Another feature that may prolong the work of securing a jury is the wide range given by the court to both sides in the examination of the talesmen. Seldom has either prosecution or defense been permitted by any court to search so deeply into the history or the present mental attitude of a prospective juryman.

At very great length E. F. Richardson, who so far has conducted the examination, among other things, invariably goes into the relations of the talesman under examination with union labor, and with what is known as the Citizen's Alliance, an organization of the citizens of Boise which is opposed to union labor. From the answers it would appear, however, that the Citizen's Alliance is not widely kown. The line of questioning invariably goes into President Roosevelt's "undesirable citizens" letter and into the speeches delivered by Secretary Taft at Pocatelle and Boise during the last gubernatorial election in which Mr. Taft supported Governor Gooding and commended his attitude on what was then known as the "Moy, Haywood, Pettibone case."

Haywood, the prisoner and defendant, is perhaps the most interesting personage in the court room. The man who has of late years been a dominant factor in the Western Federation of Miners shows less intensity of interest in the proceedings than any one around him. Upwards of forty newspaper men from every part of the United States and representing every policy and all politics are here to report a case in which he is the central figure.

Cameras are trained on him from all angles. His every move is thus recorded, but except from the little red-haired child beside him, for his invalid wife or for his counsel, with now and then a glance at a juryman, Haywood shows no sign that he realizes his importance or his position. His youngest daughter sits beside him and generally has her arm on the big man's shoulder. Now and then he turns to her and smiles. She seems delighted at the attention, and in turn will ook at her mother, weak and ailing, in the big invalid's chair, and laugh outright. Once or twice the tension has been relieved with a laugh on the older girl, a pretty woman, who sits beside her mother. She has frequently joined in the general amusement caused by some ludicrous remark by a juryman or a facetious thrust of the counsel, and her laugh rises above the subdued cackle of a courthouse laugh.

Tragedy In North Carolina.

Bristol, Tenn., May 15.—Felix J. Kidd of Big Stone Gap, Va., was shot and killed at Alta Pass, N. C., Sunday by Will Anderson, of that section. Anderson was in turn killed by Charles Hale, a friend of Kidd. Kidd passed through Bristol Saturday night, accompanied by his wife and children, enroute for Alta Pass, which place he reached only a few hours before the tragedy occurred. He was foreman of one of the construction camps on the South and Western railway, and was walking along near one of the camps in company with Hale, when Anderson, who is said to have been a bitter enemy, shot him three times, killing him almost instantly.

Fatal Accident on Central.

Macon, Ga., May 15.—Central of Georgia passenger train, which left here at 7:45 o'clock Monday night for Eatonton, was derailed at Royster Guano company's switch, a mile and a half from the city. The engine split the switch and went down the embankment. Bartow Peek, the negro fireman, was crushed to death. Engineer John Minor, of Macon, was badly scalded. Dave Taylor, negro porter, had some ribs broken. Roberts Williams, a negro, received internal injuries.

Montgomery, Ala., May 15.—After considering several sites, the commission for the location of a new Methodist woman's college, in this city, has decided on a fifty-acre tract south of the city, donated by J. G. Thomas. The work of building will begin next fall. Montgomery contributed $50,000 for the buildings, and the Methodists of Alabama will contribute $100,000 more.

Bush Fails To Give Bond.

Atlanta, May 15.—Fred Bush, the man charged with sending an infernal machine to the home of Mrs. Julia McCarthy, 447 East Georgia avenue, is still in the Tower, having so far failed to make the $10,000 bond required by the recorder. There are no new developments in the case, the city detectives reporting that they had not secured any additional clews.

All Records Broken.

New York, May 15.—Because of the great demand for raw material used in the manufacture of steel, all records were broken last month in the imports of iron ore and pig iron. Through New York and other eastern seaboard points no less than 210,789 tons arrived in April, being more than 8 per cent compared with the imports during March.

Chicago, May 15.—Seven men were saved Monday night by Frank McGinnis, a night watchman in the six-story building at 331 Dearborn street, when he made a trip to the top floor of the burning building, and brought them down in an elevator through flame and smoke. He had made two trips previously, bringing down ten men each time.

The fire was started by an explosion in the etching room of the Columbian Engraving company, on the second floor. The blaze was extinguished after $50,000 damage had been done.

WOMAN TERRORIST.

Moscow, May 15.—Madame Fromkin, who was arrested in the lobby of the opera house here March 14, having in her possession an automatic revolver, charged with poisoned bullets, and who was believed to intend the assassination of General Rheinbot, the prefect of police, was later recognized as an escaped convict terrorist from Siberia for the making of an attempt on the life of General Novitsky, chief of the gendarmerie of Kiev.

The woman Monday made an attempt to murder the inspector of the political prison here. While she was being examined by the inspector, Madame Fromkin wounded him with a revolver which had been mysteriously smuggled into her cell.

New York, May 15.—To evade the heavy tariff on foreign machinery entering the states, another European firm has decided to build a manufacturing plant on this side. The latest project is that of a Sirocco engineering works of Belfast, England. The capital of the new company is $500,000. The plant will be located in New York.

GEORGIA WINS FIGHT.

Supreme Court Decision In Copper Plant Litigation.

Atlanta, May 15.—Georgia has won by a decision of the United States supreme court a great fight waged against the Tennessee Cooper company and the Ducktown Sulphur and Copper company of Isabella and Ducktown, Tenn., just across the Georgia state line, the object of which was to put an end to their present system of smelting copper ore, the result of which is the dissemination of large quatities of sulphurous gases which are not only considered detrimental to health, but have already been slowly but surely destroying all vegetation and forestry within a radius of 50 miles and extending down into eight or ten north Georgia counties.

It has been several years since this litigation was begun directly in the supreme court in accordance with constitutional provision which gives that tribunal jurisdiction, and in the meantime the destruction has been increasing from year to year, until it has seriously affected the country for a distance of 40 miles to the south of the Tennessee state line.

The decision of the supreme court of the United States, however, will put a prompt and emphatic end to this destruction, as it orders both of these companies to cease their present method of smelting the copper ores. In other words, it is, as Georgia asked, a prohibition against any form of smelting such ores as will result in the dissemination of these noxious and destructive gases.

CALHOUN'S RADICAL STAND.

Strikers Must Surrender Union Cards If They Are Taken Back.

San Francisco, Cal., May 15.—One hundred cars, manned and guarded by 350 nonunion strike breakers, were operated Monday from 8 a. m. until 4 and 7 p. m., on six of the twenty-odd lines of the United Railroads. There were scores of acts of individual violence, but there was no riot beyond the ability of the police to put down.

President Calhoun, of the United Railroads, said:

"I shall not take back any striking motorman or conductor, unless he first surrenders his union card, and signs a contract to remain nonunion, so long as he remains in the company's employment. If any nonunion men who are attacked and their lives endangered, or police protection is not afforded, I shall exercise a constitutional right, and arm them. I shall not stand by and see my crews beaten up."

Explosion Claims Nine Lives.

Bristol, Tenn., May 15.—While a force of men were at work blasting on the South and Western railway on the works of McCarthy Bros., near Alta Pass, N. C., an explosion occurred, in which nine were almost instantly killed and four others were seriously if not fatally injured. The men were all employees of the railway company and were natives of the Alta Pass section. The force had drilled for a blast, and after placing the explosive in the blast hole, started to retreat; the dynamite gred prematurely and the men were hurled in every direction. Those who were killed were terribly mutilated, while the surviving workmen are badly bruised and lacerated.

COREY AND ACTRESS MARRY AT MIDNIGHT

Afterward Sail for Europe on Steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II.

WILL SUMMER IN FAIR FRANCE

Steel King's Wedding Gift to His Bride Was a Chateau in France, Whose Value, It Is Said, Is One Million Dollars.

New York, May 15.—Mr. W. Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, and Mrs. Corey, whose wedding occurred at the Hotel Gotham at 1:30 o'clock Monday morning, left the hotel half an hour later for Hoboken, where they boarded the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, on which they sailed for Europe Tuesday.

Mrs. Corey was attired in a simple dark-colored traveling dress. A few of the guests who remained for the purpose, bid the couple good bye. The streets in the vicinity of the hotel which had been thronged early in the night by a curious crowd, were nearly deserted when Mr. Corey and his bride departed.

Mr. and Mrs. Corey on arriving in Europe will go directly to the chateau Villagenic, on the outskirts of Paris, where they will reside until the middle of July. This chateau, which is one of the finest in France, was the wedding gift of Mr. Corey to his bride. It was given to her just before the wedding. Its value is said to be about $1,000.

The wedding of Mr. Corey and Mabelle Gilman took place in a little chapel in the suite of rooms engaged by Mr. Corey. The couple stood beneath an arch of orchids and asparagus plumes from the top of which was suspended a white satin marriage bell. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. T. Clark, a Congregationalist minister of Brooklyn, was simple and brief. The hour set for the ceremony enabled the couple to avoid being married on the thirteenth of the month, and also to catch the steamer.

Mr. Corey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Corey, Sr., and 25 other relatives and friends of the bride and groom, witnessed the ceremony, and were also at the dinner which preceded the wedding.

HUMAN FLESH FOR SALE.

Natives of South Cameroons Eat Their Captives and Criminals.

Berlin, May 15.—A correspondent of the Cologne Gazette writing from the South Cameroons, says that the Maka, the negro tribe inhabiting the territory between the second and the sixth degrees north latitude, are cannibals, and not only eat captives but criminals who have been condemned to death.

The smallest offenses, he says, are punishable with leath in order to secure a constant supply for consumption.

Probable Attempt on King's Life.

Paris, May 15.—A Rome dispatch to the Journal says that a bomb exploded Monday at Pontelagescuro near Ferara, near a merry-go-round. Three children were wounded. A man named Antonio, the supposed bearer of the bomb, was arrested. The royal train from Venice was due to pass Pontelagoscuro a few minutes after the explosion. Antonio refused to explain his presence there which caused the belief that he intended an attempt on the king's life.

Cotton Seed Famine.

New Orleans, May 15.—Private advices from Baton Rouge say that cotton seed is becoming so scarce that farmers who have sold seed to the mills are telephoning the mills to have it back. Many as three plantings, made necesary by the phenomenal rains in some sections, have brought planters to the verge of a seed famine. Several cotton seed oil mills have closed down because of the scarcity.

Prof. Pribble, as has been stated, will deliver his lecture on the mosquito and the best and most effective manner of treating it tomorrow (Friday) evening. The lecture was formerly to be given on Wednesday evening, but owing to the session of the Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Church, and with courtesy to the school children, it was decided best to postpone the same until Friday, when it will be delivered in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School.

Prof. Pribble is not only a naturalist of note, but also knows a few things about playing a piano, and has consented to give a musical recital in connection with his lecture.

FIRST DAY'S SESSION EPISCOPAL MEETING

Large Number of Delegates Are in Attendance at the Session.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLES.

Readily Yield to Soothing, Healing Treatment of Hyomei.

Bronchial troubles are purely local. They cannot be helped by stomach dosing. They are caused by irritation in the air passages and can be relieved and cured by medicated air alone. In this lies the secret of the great success of Hy-o-mei in the treatment of bronchial troubles.

The Hy-o-mei medication, laden with nature's remedies, is breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, reaching every part of the bronchial tubes and killing at once the disease germs. It allays all irritation and heals the inflammation of the mucous membrane with astonishing rapidity.

Treatment with sprays, douches and atomizers in bronchial troubles is condemned by the best physicians, as they cause further irritation.

The first breath of Hy-o-mei's medicated air seems to soothe the inflammation, stop the cough, and thus relief soon becomes permanent and a cure results.

Hy-o-mei has made many remarkable cures in the worst and most chronic forms of bronchial troubles and is sold by J. W. McCollum with the same guarantee as he gives when Hy-o-mei is purchased for catarrh, that is, to refund the money in case the remedy does not give satisfaction. The complete outfit costs $1.00.

In the Mayor's Court.

John and Julia Thompson, colored, man and wife, were arraigned in the mayor's court Wednesday morning upon a charge of fighting, and were fined $2.50 and cost each.

Thompson paid both fines, when the pair was released.

S.S.S. A CERTAIN SAFE TREATMENT

Even if mercury and potash could cure Contagious Blood Poison the condition in which these strong minerals leave the system would make the "cure worse than the disease." But they cannot cure the vile disorder; they can only cover up the symptoms for awhile or mask the disease in the system, but as soon as the treatment is left off the hideous symptoms return. Mercury and potash eat out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, produce chronic dyspepsia by drying up the gastric juices, cause the teeth to decay, and often completely break down the constitution, and where they are used in large quantities, the bones become affected, while the disease for which one has so long taken this destructive treatment has not been cured. Contagious Blood Poison is a disease it will not do to trifle with. It is a vile, dangerous and destructive disorder. When the blood becomes infected with its virus the mouth and throat ulcerate, hair and eyebrows come out, glands in the neck and groin swell, copper-colored spots appear on the flesh, and in severe cases sores break out on the body, the finger nails drop off and the sufferer is diseased from head to foot. S. S. S. is the only known antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the one remedy that is able to get to the root of the disease and force out every particle of the poison so that there are never any signs of its return. It is purely vegetable, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks of known curative value. Instead of leaving bad after-effects as some medicines do, S. S. S. tones up every part of the system and puts every part of the body in perfect health. It will also remove any lingering effects of former mineral treatment while eradicating the poison from the circulation. Special book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write.

The School Will Soon Close, After Successful Term—Personal Mention.

Island Grove, May 14.—This section has been blessed with an abundant rainfall and the farmers are now busy stirring the soil.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson leaves today for Jacksonville, where she will be a guest of her sister, Mrs. Pope, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Evans and Mrs. H. M. Baker departed Sunday for Dutton, where they were called on account of the serious illness of little Winburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Gilbert, and grandson of Mrs. Evans.

Our school at this place will close next Friday week, after a most successful term taught by Prof. T. J. McBeath and daughter, Miss Mary. They are preparing a very interesting program for the last day, and we feel sure that those who attend will not have any regrets for having done so.

The Methodists are preparing an excellent program for children's day, on the second Sunday in June.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist church at this place rendered a most excellent program Sunday night to a large and appreciative audience. Many impressive pieces were rendered in a charming manner. The needs of the foreign lands were set forth in such a way by the speakers and singers as to set the most unconcerned to thinking. These good ladies are doing a noble work. May it prosper, is our prayer.

TUESDAY'S WORK AT THE STATE CAPITOL

Senate Voted Down Bills for Addition to Capitol Building.

COUNTY TREASURER BILL

Effort to Pass Measure Abolishing That Office Was Defeated After Hard Fight by Close Vote—Other Matters of Importance.

Notwithstanding the fact that two sessions are now being held daily by both branches of the Florida Legislature, a resolution was adopted in the House providing for night sessions in that body commencing yesterday.

Many new bills are still being introduced, and there remains yet for consideration many of the most important and absolutely necessary measures.

The first report of the Legislative investigating committee of the internal improvement fund was submitted to the House during the afternoon session, and its consideration made a special order for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The report, which is signed by Senator Buckman, as chairman, and Senator West of the First, as secretary, is rather brief and presents no facts or results, merely in a way reporting progress and asking for further instructions. It does, however, recite the facts that two expert accountants, Haskins and Sells of New York, have been at work since April 22, and that their work had progressed back from that date, this year, to January 1, 1901, and the committee expected to complete the investigation for that period of time, except the examination of witnesses, by the first of this week. The approximate cost to date is given at $2,500. The committee reports that it is now satisfied that it will be impossible to complete the investigation back to the organization of board in 1855, and make a report this session, and desires to ascertain the wishes of the Legislature, as to the continuance of their work after the close of the present session.

A greater part of Tuesday's work was the consideration of bills on second reading and their retainment on calendar to bills on third reading, a necessary but somewhat, in most cases, unnecessary routine with very important exceptions, such as in the afternoon in the Senate, when Senator Trammell unsuccessfully endeavored to substitute a new franchise tax bill for one on the calendar adversely reported. Both substitute and original were killed.

The Senate also killed the capitol extension and supreme court new building bills, and the House effectually disposed of the proposed constitutional amendment of Mr. Matthews of Marion, abolishing the office of county treasurer, not, however, without a strong and able fight by its author.

A telegram was received in the House announcing that Speaker Matthews, who has been quite ill at his home in Starke, was improved, and expected to arrive in Tallahassee soon.

A large number of important special orders in both Senate and House are on the calendar for the remainder of this week, and the early days of the week following.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 10 a. m., today, President Harris in the chair, and thirty Senators responding to roll call.

Only one new bill was introduced under the regular order. Senate bill No. 1, by Mr. Alford, to amend an act to incorporate the town of Carrabelle, Franklin county, Florida, approved May 11, 1893.

Senator Alford, contrary to the usual custom, did not ask for waiver of rules and passage of bill, as he desired it open for investigation. The bill was then referred to committee on city and county organizations.

By permission, Senator Beard introduced Senate bill No. 400, designating October 12 as a public holiday, to be called Columbus day.

The Gainesville charter bill was called up, and on motion of Senator McCreary, House amendments were concurred in.

Bills On Second Reading.

House bill No. 82, by Mr. Harvell of Santa Rosa—A bill to be entitled an act to provide for the establishment and maintenance of schools of agriculture and mechanic arts in the respective congressional districts of this State.

Bill being reported unfavorable, the chairman of the committee so reporting moved, indefinite postponement. Motion adopted.

Senate bill No. 172, by Mr. Baker, was withdrawn, and House bill No. 86, by Mr. Richbourg of Walton substituted, being a bill amending Section 1512 of the general statutes relating to pay of witnesses; was read the third time, and passed under waiver of rules.

State Capitol Additions.

The special order, which was not reached Monday, being the consideration of Senate bills Nos. 151 and 252, providing for erection of a public building at the State capitol for supreme court and other officers and (152) for enlargement and repair of the State capitol, was then the order of the Senate, and Senate bill No. 151, by Mr. Sams, was read, together with the report of the committee who had inspected certain locations for the proposed new building. Senator Buckman offered an amendment, which was adopted, reducing the appropriation from $100,000 to $80,000.

The amendment of Senator Willis, reducing the appropriation to $80,000, was lost, together with others.

The rules were finally waived and the bill put on its third reading and final passage where all ray of hope was soon lost and on roll call was defeated by a vote of 8 to 22, and the question of new buildings or improvements to the present capitol structure is definitely settled and in the negative.

Afternoon Session.

The Senate was called to order at 3:30, President Harris in the chair and only sixteen Senators answering to roll call.

Senators Broome and West of First were excused.

It was announced that the judiciary committee was in session, which in a few minutes adjourned and the remaining Senators were soon in the hall and a quorum voted as present.

Messages from the House of Representatives were taken up and House bill No. 312, relating to time of holding terms of the circuit court of the third judicial circuit, was called. Upon motion of Senator Cockrell rules were waived and the bill was read the second and third time and passed 25 to 0.

Numerous other bills, memorials, resolutions, etc., were read by title and referred to proper committees.

The Senate adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

IN THE HOUSE.

The House was called to order at 9:30 a. m. by Mr. Knowles. Roll call, 65 present. Prayer by chaplain. Correction of journal.

House resolution No. 17, by Mr. Donegan of Osceola—Asking for improvement of upper St. Johns river, between Sanford and Lake Poinsett; adopted under suspension of rules, yeas 52, nays 0.

House resolution No. 82, by Mr. Wilson of Hernando—That, beginning on Wednesday, May 15, the House hold night sessions from 8 to 10 p. m., for consideration of bills on second reading, and dispensing with roll call of counties for introduction of bills after the 20th. Adopted.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Carter of Alachua—Relief of A. J. DaCosta.

By Mr. Reese of Escambia (by request)—For insurance department of Florida and State insurance commissioner.

By. Mr. Smith of Lake—Relating to State Board of Health; 200 copies ordered printed.

By Mr. Smith of Lake (by request)—Relating to illicit sale of liquors.

Reports of committees were received, and spread upon the journal.

Messages from the Senate were received and the bills contained therein referred to the proper committees.

Bills On Third Reading.

House bill No. 312, by Mr. Faulkner of Taylor—Relating to terms of court in third judicial circuit. Passed.

House bill No. 314, by Mr. Paul of Holmes—Relating to supervisions of registration. Passed.

Senate bill No. 87, by Mr. Adams of the Thirtieth—Defining the grades to be taught in the uniform system of public schools, and to aid and encourage the establishment of public high schools. The bill carries with it an annual appropriation of $65,000 for two years. Passed.

House bill No. 409, by Mr. Melton of Duval—Providing for furnishing the Governor's mansion and improvements of grounds.

After considerable discussion in regard to the amount provided for this purpose, the bill passed by a vote of 32 to 25.

On Special Order.

The House proceeded to the consideration of House joint resolution No. 52, by Mr. Matthews of Marion—Providing for a constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county treasurer. On motion of Mr. MacWilliams, the resolution was placed on third reading, and was lost, ayes 26, nays 27.

The exceedingly close vote indicated that the efforts of the gentleman from Marion had not been wholly in vain.

On motion of Mr. Decker of Hillsborough, the rules were suspended and Senate messages were read and the bills referred to the proper committees.

A special report was received and read from the special committee to investigate the interpal improvement fund.

Mr. Carter moved it be spread upon the journal and made a special order for 10 a. m. Carried.

House adjourned to 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Real estate agents all refused to rent to the negro or raised the rents to absurd figures when Hinds applied to them.

It is not often that Florida railroads are forced to increase their train service during the summer on account of increased travel, but such a condition has been made necessary on the Homestead branch of the F. E. C. railway. This additional train has been made necessary by the increased travel and business connected with the extension operations and by the large number of persons who have engagements daily at Homestead and points intermediate.

Florida has many attractions, but the crown and pearl of them all is her incomparable climate. So genial and balmy is it, that in winter as well as in summer even invalids can live an outdoor life, breathe the pure, bracing air, and have the health of their youth renewed. The climate of Florida is unlike that of any other State in the Union. Not only is it delightful in winter, but in the summer as well, as the sea breezes sweep the entire State in all seasons.—Titusville Advocate.

MR. FUGATE ON HAY.

The Southern Ruralist of Atlanta, Ga., in its special forage edition of May 1, contains an interesting article, "Saving Hay in Wet Weather," written by J. E. Fugate of Alachua, and for which he received a prize, being one of five awarded. Mr. Fugate has treated his subject in a clever, practical manner, and it will no doubt prove of great benefit to the farmer, as his suggestions are good. Mr. Fugate's friends congratulate him upon this excellent article, which follows:

"I select a piece of tolerably old land that will make from ten to twenty bushels of corn to the acre, where the beggarweeds do not grow very rank, but thick.

"I break this land good and deep with two-horse plow, turning under all vegetation early. When planting time comes, I law off rows four and one-half feet apart, opening with six or eight-inch shovel deep; plant the corn there and one-half to four feet in drill, covering with planter plow or double stock with two small scooters, so as to cover shallow and leave corn below level.

"When time to work, I run around with small sweep tolerably deep, plow out middles with scrape or large wing sweeps, so as to leave beds flat; after this, cultivate shallow with same until laid by, so as not to make any more bed than possible.

"When corn will do to gather, I gather it. As soon as the beggarweeds begin to bloom, and I get a day when I think it won't rain that day, as soon as dew dries off, I go in and mow until noon. In afternoon, I take two men and commence raking and stacking corn, stalks and all, using a ten-foot fence rail for stackpole, set two feet in ground with post-hole digger. I stack right on ground or throw some cornstalks down first. I make my stacks about six feet through at bottom and keep them well-rounded up and patted down as they go up with fork, never letting anyone get on stack. When I get to top of rail, I put a large forkful on top and pat it down smooth with fork, and continue in this way every day that weather will permit until I get all I want saved; then I let remain in this stack from twenty to thirty days, or longer, according to weather conditions. The damper the weather, the longer it must stay in these stacks. Do not be uneasy about this spoiling, for it will not, as the cornstalks will keep it from heating and packing, and also act as an absorbent of moisture.

"When it gets thoroughly cured, I haul it to barn or press and bale.

"I will add that in stacking you generally get rid of at least 25 per cent of the stalks, as they will fall out of the hay in handling. Then when you go to haul, the man forking it on wagon will throw out about 25 per cent more and man on wagon the same. By the time you get it to the barn or press, you only have about 25 per cent more and as you are unloading it you can easily throw these out and not lose any time.

"You will be surprised to see how green and nice hay will keep in this manner, even under unfavorable weather conditions; horses will eat this hay in preference to the finest timothy or clover hay in the world.

"I have left hay stacked in field in this way from September until January, and inside it was as if it had not been there a month. I will also add that it sheds but very few leaves cured in this manner.

"Peas or any other crop that will mature after corn is gathered, can be saved in same manner; but you will have to plant bunch varieties of peas, so they won't run on stalks.

"You may think that I am a 'luny,' but if you will try this method once you will worry no more about saving hay in the moist climate of ours. The cornstalks will beat all the crosspieces you can nail across your stackpole, and instead of being a source of annoyance when you go to save hay, as you have always found them, you will find them a blessing in disguise, and also save the expense of those two men whom you have been hiring to follow behind your mower to pick up and pile these stalks."

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One Thing at a Time

"I can't afford to advertise on a large scale," said a merchant lately, "and with my varied stock I wouldn't know where to begin on a small scale."

It is a common fallacy that the advertising must cover the whole stock.

In point of fact it never does, even with the most lavish advertisers, and, if it did, the result would be a jumble of prolixity. The true policy is to select one article at a time—something moderately priced and meeting the want of the day—and push that at the people.—Philadelphia Record.

SPECIAL OCCASION.

On account of the above occasion we announce round-trip rate of one fare, plus twenty-five cents in the sale of tickets to Richmond, Va., tickets at this rate being on sale from May 13th until 16th inclusive, with final limit to leave Richmond fifteen days from date of sale. However, by complying with certain conditions and upon payment of fee of $1.00, an extension of this limit to June 17th may be procured.

The Seaboard has been declared the Official Route for delegates to this meeting. Those having the matter in hand were evidently guided in reaching the decision to name the line by some of the attractive features of the service, noticeable among these being the double daily service with through coaches and sleeping cars and then the following: Our people, with an idea of affording delegates' to this and other conventions held in Richmond, an opportunity for visiting the Jamestown Exposition, perfected an arrangement whereby the return portion of tickets reading from Richmond are honored from Portsmouth, Virginia, without additional charge. This alone certainly makes the Seaboard especially attractive.

There is a movement now on foot to have the Florida Baptists assemble in Jacksonville, moving from there on the same train—one might say in a body. This, too, will make the trip more pleasant.

NO CHANGE IN STRIKE.

Longshoremen at New York Are Still Standing Firm.

New York, May 15.—The longshoremen's strike shows no change. Both sides are resolute. Some attempts have been made foward arbitration, but these efforts have not been sanctioned either by the transatlantic steamship companies or the strikers, and they have been met with discouragement at the outset.

Herman Robinson, the New York representative of the American Federation of Labor, sought the headquarters of the Longshoremen's Protective union to inquire if the federation could be of any assistance in a possible settlement of the strike, although the union is not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

President Connors, of the union, told him that the strikers were not looking for arbitration, and that if the steamship companies wished to communicate with the strikers their agents could come to the longshoremen's headquarters.

Suit Against "Mother" Eddy.

Concord, N. H., May 14.—A motion for additional time in which to file supplemental pleadings was Monday granted counsel for the plaintiff in the suit brought by the "next friend" of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy for an accounting of the property of the Christian Science leader in the Merrimack county superior court. The motion required 15 days additional time for the filing of supplemental pleadings after the decision of the court is rendered on the petition of Mrs. Eddy's three trustees, Henry M. Baker, Archibald McClellan and Josiah E. Fernald, that they be substituted for the "next friends" as plaintiffs in the suit. Arguments on the petition of the trustees will be made next Monday, May 20. There was no opposition by counsel for the defence.

Reward Is Increased.

Atlanta, May 15.—S. H. Dimon, the father-in-law of the man who has been missing since Thursday a week ago, stated Monday afternoon that the reward for the recovery of the body of J. L. Nash had been raised to $500 and that circulars to that effect would be scattered broadcast. Professor Emory Nash, the father of the young man, and his brothers, are still at work on every clew in the endeavor to find some trace of the missing man. The Knights of Pythias, of which Nash was a member, will also aid in ferrting out the riddle, for such has the mystery of his disappearance grown to be.

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Scott's Worst Hour.

It is not the foolish and ignorant who are prey to the most unreasoning fears. Scott, who had grand moral courage and seems ordinarily not to have lacked physical courage, has left it on record that the moment of greatest terror in his life was that he spent while walking back through the fields after passing a day with Joanna Baillie at Hampsted. He met a rough looking man, a disreputable figure of the real jail bird. Scott hurried past him in alarm and was further disconcerted when he saw, by turning his head, that the man had crept through a gap to the other side of the hedge. Scott climbed through another gap, so that he was able to see the fellow groping at the bottom of the hedge. It was a stone or a cudgel that the ruffian was seeking, so that he might do murder, the novelist thought. And in that moment he experienced an agony of fear such as never before or afterward possessed him. The purpose of the man was quite innocent; he was merely picking up a bundle. Scott vaulted a stile with such thankfulness to escape that he was unconscious at the time that in grasping the wood he drove home a splinter three-quarters of an inch long between the flesh and the nail of one of his fingers.—St. James' Gazette.

The Kaleidoscope

Have you any idea what a wonderful thing a kaleidoscope really is? Did you ever catch yourself wondering how many different kinds of patterns could be formed by the little bits of colored glass which the instrument contains and which adjust themselves with such remarkable facility when the instrument is turned in the hand? A calculation has been made by a noted mathematician which we are sure will astonish readers. He shows that a kaleidoscope containing twelve bits of glass may be turned rapidly enough to make ten changes a minute day and night for ninety-one years and forty-nine days without exhausting the different combinations or the possibilities of getting a new figure on the next turn. If the number of pieces of glass be increased to twenty, a calculation shows that 462,880,809,576 years would be necessary to go through all of the changes of which it would be capable, the holder of the instrument turning all the while so as to get ten changes a minute and working day and night those millions of years.

How Browning Read Political Matter.

I have read the newspapers only through Robert's eyes. He reads them in a room sacred from the foot of woman, and this is not always satisfactory, as whenever Robert falls into a state of disgust with any political party he throws the whole subject over. Every now and then he ignores France altogether, and I, who am more tolerant and more curious, find myself suspended over a hiatus. I ask about Thiers' speech. "Thiers is a rascal," he says, "I make a point of not reading a word of Thiers." M. Prudhon, then? "Prudhon is a madman. Who cares for Prudhon?" The president? "The president is an ass not worth thinking of." And so we treat of politics.—Letters of Elizabeth Barrett Browning.
